DONATION FROM THE GRAND HAVEN EAGLES WILL HELP WITH RESCUE AND RECOVERY

John Knott from the Ottawa County Sheriff's Department, stopped by to thank us for the donation of the AquaEye.

AquaEye® is an advanced underwater scanner, using the latest in ultrasound and artificial intelligence technologies to identify human bodies underwater. AquaEye sends a sonar pulse out to 165 feet and listens for the return echo. AquaEye then decides which echoes match the echoes from a human body and indicates the location of the missing persons on the screen.

The unit the Eagles purchased for OCS D has already been successfully used in efforts in the Detroit area, as well as locally in Lake Macatawa.

Worthy President News

Dear Brothers & Sisters -

Hello everyone, hope this finds all of you well and things are good. We are looking forward to Fish Fry Fridays in February, and we still need at least one more FRY TEAM. Please see Terry Robertson for more info. It is a lot of fun! We are also looking for a couple of trustee positions to fill and a Chaplain as well. If interested please see me. The first Comedy Night went very well and it was a great show! Our next Comedy Night happens on February 12th; a great way to beat the winter blues! February 5th is our next Euchre Tournament, play starts promptly at 1 PM, so get there a little early to sign in. Sorry to say, but our Annual Beer & Wine Tasting could not take place in January, but the good news is that the event has been rescheduled for April 23rd, so mark those calendars! The proceeds will go to the Lighthouse Conservancy. Lots of live music scheduled for the month, and with the Queen of Hearts Jackpot growing, lots of good reasons to stop by your Eagles #925. Thank you to all the volunteers for all that you do, as it is not possible without of the help.

Thank you,
DJ Westerhouse,
Worthy President

Worthy Secretary News

Fellow Eagles,

Happy February. Even though this month is significantly shorter than all others, we've managed to pack in a full slate of entertainment to get you through the cold!

Please join me in welcoming our new members, re-enrolls, and transfers: Scott Barron, Richard Behm, Bill Burk, Marc Burns, Dave Howell, Robert Hutchinson, Scott Jenkins, Eric Kuhn, Kevin Mclaughlin, Woody Presley, Tom Reinhardt, Niko Rottschafer,

Zbigniew Smolenski, Dane Chittenden, Louis Frickman, Cody Haan, Steve Johnson

We're happy to have been able to make the following charitable donations in January:

Purchase, Kentucky Eagles: $1,000 to assist with disaster relief following December's tornado damage in the community

FOE 925 Men's Indoor Soccer Team Sponsorship: $500

Bill Ellingboe II
Worthy Secretary

Auxiliary News

Hello Ladies!!

Please help me in welcoming our new and re-enrolled members for January: Janis K Calanchi, Nadia Boytsova, Lori Brokema, Samantha Covington, Susie Damore, Ashlie Eslick, Kim Hersrud, Tammy Morgan, Kelly Raggl, Monica Reyes, Lori R. Striker and Jen Wachter.

Auxiliary is hosting the Fish Fry on February 4th. Please stop down and enjoy a great fish dinner and support our Charity fund that helps many local, state and national charities. We constantly review charities to assist in fund-raising efforts for our community.

Moving forward, our dues proration is changing. The Auxiliary voted on January 25th that the new proration will be. June through November will be required to pay full dues of $25 and December through May the proration amount will be $15. At the end of our fiscal year the Auxiliary pays to the Grand Aerie and State Auxiliary a total of $15 per member. So, collecting the minimum of $15 covers these fees.

I would also like to take a moment to recognize Auxiliary members that left us in 2021. We pray that the Lord comforts these families in difficult times as memories still live on. Share stories with each other and celebrate these wonderful women. Thank you to Majorie Velik, Anthonia Prelesnik, Sandra Hubner, Sharon Messenger you all will be missed. Please forgive me if I have missed anyone and feel free to contact me if I have.

Stay Safe, & Warm!!!

Rita Cherry, Auxiliary Secretary
